UNIVERSITIES OF WISCONSIN

Resources from the International Community Town Hall (April 29, 2025)

On Tuesday, April 29, International Faculty and Staff Services (IFSS) hosted a virtual town hall meeting for international scholars, faculty, and staff.

The following information is a summary of selected information and resources provided to the Universities of Wisconsin international community.

This information is valid as of 29 April 2025, and updates will be available on the Resources on Immigration Issues webpage.

Support Services for Employees

- Your HR office
- LifeMatters or employee assistance offices (these differ by campus)
- For immigration matters relating to your job, your UW-sponsored status, please contact the International Faculty and Staff Services office.
- If you are an F-1 student on Optional Practical Training (OPT) through another university, please contact them for guidance.

Legal Representation Services

- The State Bar of Wisconsin attorney referral service
- The American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) search tool

Know Your Rights Resources

- American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU)
- National Immigration Law Center (NILC)
- Immigrant Legal Resource Center (ILRC)
- U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (USEEOC)
- American Immigration Lawyer Association (AILA): Know your rights when re-entering the U.S.

Resources to Stay Informed (updated regularly)

- Resources on Immigration Issues
- Universities of Wisconsin Government Relations Federal Updates page

Compliance Resources

- American Immigration Lawyer Association (AILA): Protecting Your Permanent Residency
- Immigration Matters: Your U.S. Compliance Roadmap
- USCIS After the green card is granted
- USCIS Rights and Responsibilities

IFSS does not endorse or otherwise adopt the viewpoint of any non-UW–Madison resource listed. The list is not exhaustive and is meant for informational purposes only.

April 29, 2025